

Hope

in Uncertain Times

In periods of instability Christ's message lights the way.

In this season of Epiphany we, like the Wise Men, seek that light.

What is Christ's message for us today?

JANUARY 8, 2012

Help make the world a better place

Archbishop Colin Johnson speaks about his quest to help bring about the kingdom by ending homelessness and child poverty.

JANUARY 15, 2012

How to start again when dreams are shattered

Whether in the workplace or in relationships, sometimes our otherwise realistic expectations come to an end.

Christianity has a lot to say about reassessing ourselves and our values to find new life.

JANUARY 22, 2012

Moving beyond resentment and anger

We can fester in many dark places. How do we choose wholeness and life?

JANUARY 29, 2012

Moving out of anxiety, fear and worry about money and loss

Overwhelmed? Where is God when we can't see beyond the pain or the problem?

FEBRUARY 5, 2012

Coping with guilt and self-doubt

We have all made mistakes. How do we know the right path for the future when the way is not clear and we are so uncertain?

FEBRUARY 12, 2012

Stop, watch, pay attention, something incredible is about to happen

How do we stay open to the opportunities that await us? God is making something new in us.
